Adam & team,

[REDACTED]

Looking forward to seeing you all Wednesday morning. We're planning to be at your offices at 9:30am, and are hoping to have access to a room with whiteboards for our initial workshops if possible. Please let us know if there's anything else we should be aware of, otherwise we'll see you all then!

Thanks,
Callista

Hi Tiffany,

Appreciate your help here! February 20th works for us. We have some thoughts on an agenda and will send something over to you all. If you're able to confirm that date, we'll get working on travel plans.

Thank you so much for the offer on hotel accommodations; I'll let you know if it looks like we'll need to take you up on that as we firm up our plans.

Thanks again,
Callista

Hi Callista,

Wanted to circle back on this for you. There is some availability on Tuesday, February 20th if that works on your end. Would you be able provide us a proposed agenda for the visit?

We also wanted to provide you with our corporate nightly hotel rate if you are interested. We have a corporate rate at Greektown Casino Hotel which is $149 + tax per night and is down the street from our main office location. If you are interested, I can help with the booking the reservations and provided you with the additional details.

Please let me know and/or if you have any additional questions.

Thank you,

How does Feb 12th look for you?

If not we can look at dates later in the month but that is the one day I know as of now we will have our senior leaders for Ops, Engineering, and Product in the office.

Thanks,

Thank you for the note. We be happy to host you and the team at our authentication center in London next Thursday. I am adding our GM of Europe, Olivier to help coordinate. It would be helpful to provide an agenda or list of questions you like to cover with the Ops team in London. Vegas and Joe are also on this email and can work directly with you to schedule a [REDACTED] video call. We be happy for your team to come to Detroit post the visit to discuss as well as cover any additional operation questions with our Ops team here. Let's look at the calendar to find a mutually convenient date when you are ready to schedule.

Any questions please let me know.
